CAREER COUNSELLING AND CONSULTATION SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Career Counselling and Consultation Services Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") lays down the terms and conditions governing the services provided by the Company to the Customer.

This Agreement is executed on the _____ day of _____, 20_____ ("Execution Date").

BY AND BETWEEN

Cerebral Compass Private Limited (CIN: U85500BR2026PTC088668), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013, and having its registered office at _____ (hereinafter referred to as the "Company", which expression shall, unless repugnant to the context or meaning thereof, be deemed to mean and include its successors and permitted assigns) of the FIRST PARTY;

AND

Mr./Ms. _____, son/daughter/ward of _____, residing at _____, and/or the parent or lawful guardian signing below (hereinafter referred to as the "Customer", which expression shall, where the context permits, include the student and the student's parent or lawful guardian) of the SECOND PARTY.

The Company and the Customer are hereinafter individually referred to as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties".

WHEREAS the Company provides career counselling, educational consultation, course and institution guidance and related assistance, and the Customer wishes to avail the services described in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE MUTUAL PROMISES AND COVENANTS HEREIN CONTAINED, THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Terms and Conditions of Services

1.1. The Company shall provide the Customer with the career counselling, consultation and related services described in Schedule A (the "Services"), together with any additional services expressly agreed by the Parties in writing or in a written booking confirmation.

1.2. The Company shall perform the agreed Services with reasonable care and skill and shall make reasonable efforts to provide the Services in a timely and professional manner.

1.3. The Customer shall promptly provide accurate, complete and up-to-date information, records and documents reasonably required for the Services, and shall inform the Company of any material change or correction.

1.4. The Company shall explain the agreed scope of Services, the applicable Service Fee and any material limitations before the Customer confirms the booking. Any additional service or charge must be communicated and accepted before it becomes payable.

1.5. The Parties shall reasonably cooperate with each other. The Company is not required to provide services that are outside the agreed scope unless separately agreed.

2. Service Period

The Services shall commence on _____ and shall continue until the agreed Services are completed, the booking is cancelled, or this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Clause 8. Any ongoing package or defined service period shall be specified here: _____.

3. Fees and Expenses

3.1. The Customer shall pay the Company the consultation and career counselling fee stated in Schedule B (the "Service Fee") for the Services described in Schedule A. The Service Fee is charged by Cerebral Compass Private Limited for its own consultation, career counselling and related services only.

3.2. The Service Fee does not include any tuition fee, college fee, university fee, admission fee, registration fee, hostel fee, examination fee, deposit or other charge payable to a college, university or other educational institution.

3.3. Following confirmation of admission, the student and/or the student's parent or lawful guardian shall pay the relevant college, university or institution directly, through its authorised payment channel. Such institutional charges are not payable to the Company under this Agreement and are not included in the Service Fee, unless a separate written arrangement expressly states otherwise.

3.4. The Company shall not represent an institutional charge as its own fee. The Customer should verify institutional payment instructions directly with the relevant institution. Any taxes applicable to the Service Fee shall be disclosed and charged in accordance with applicable law.

3.5. The Company shall provide a receipt or payment acknowledgement for the Service Fee received. No additional charge shall be imposed unless it was clearly disclosed and accepted by the Customer before the relevant service or expense was incurred.

4. Duties and Obligations

4.1. The Company shall use reasonable care and professional judgement when providing counselling, consultation, course guidance, institution shortlisting or admission-related assistance included in the agreed Services.

4.2. The Company shall communicate material information known to it that is relevant to the agreed Services, but the Customer remains responsible for independently verifying official admission criteria, course details, recognition/accreditation, deadlines, scholarships, institutional fees and refund policies with the relevant institution or authority.

4.3. The Customer shall make final decisions about courses and institutions, provide genuine documents, submit applications and information where required, meet relevant deadlines, attend booked sessions and pay institutional charges directly to the institution.

4.4. The Company does not control the decisions, rules, eligibility requirements, seat availability, timelines or policies of colleges, universities, examination bodies, embassies or government authorities.

5. Representations and Warranties

5.1. Each Party represents that it has the legal capacity and authority to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations.

5.2. The Customer represents that the information and documents supplied to the Company are, to the Customer's knowledge, accurate and genuine, and that the Customer is authorised to provide any information or document supplied on behalf of the student.

5.3. The Company does not guarantee admission to any particular college, university or course, a scholarship, visa approval, employment, or any specific academic or career outcome. Any recommendation is guidance based on the information available and the Customer's stated profile and preferences.

5.4. Nothing in this Agreement limits the Company's obligation to provide the agreed Services with reasonable care or limits any right or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded.

6. Confidentiality and Personal Information

6.1. Information supplied by the Customer in connection with the Services, including personal, academic and application-related information, shall be handled for purposes reasonably connected with providing the Services, communicating with the Customer, maintaining records and complying with applicable law.

6.2. The Company shall take reasonable steps to protect Customer information and restrict access to persons who need it for the agreed Services or other lawful purposes. The Company shall not knowingly disclose Customer information to unrelated persons except with appropriate authorisation or where permitted or required by law.

6.3. The Customer authorises the Company to use or share relevant information with a college, university or service provider only to the extent reasonably necessary for a service requested by the Customer or otherwise lawfully permitted. Where required, separate consent shall be obtained.

6.4. The Customer should not share passwords, payment PINs or other security credentials with the Company. The Company will not ask the Customer to disclose such credentials for ordinary counselling services.

6.5. Where the student is a minor, the parent or lawful guardian signing this Agreement confirms their authority to act for the student and acknowledges the applicable privacy notice and consent requirements.

7. Website Terms and Conditions

7.1. The Parties shall comply with the applicable Terms and Conditions and service policies published on the Company's website at cerebralcompass.in, provided that the relevant terms are made reasonably accessible to the Customer before booking and are consistent with applicable law.

7.2. The Company shall provide the Customer with a copy of, or accessible link to, the applicable website terms before or at the time of booking. The Customer shall have a reasonable opportunity to read them before confirming the Services.

7.3. If a specific provision of this Agreement conflicts with a general website term regarding the Services purchased, the Service Fee, institutional fees or refunds, this Agreement shall prevail for that transaction unless the Parties expressly agree otherwise in writing or applicable law requires otherwise.

7.4. No website term shall be interpreted as removing a non-waivable statutory or consumer right. If the website terms are unavailable, the Company shall provide the relevant terms directly before asking the Customer to accept them.

8. Cancellation and Termination

8.1. Either Party may request cancellation by written notice through the contact details stated in this Agreement or the booking confirmation. The applicable cancellation notice period, if any, shall be disclosed before the booking is confirmed.

8.2. If the Customer cancels before any substantive service has been provided, the Company shall refund the amount paid, less only any clearly disclosed, reasonable and non-recoverable third-party cost incurred for that Customer, where legally permissible.

8.3. If part of the Services has already been provided, the Company may retain a reasonable and proportionate amount for Services actually delivered and any properly disclosed, non-recoverable third-party costs, and shall refund any balance paid for Services not delivered, subject to applicable law and any more favourable published refund terms.

8.4. If the Company cancels or is unable to provide a material part of the agreed Services, the Customer may choose a reasonable rescheduled date or receive a refund for the undelivered portion. The Company shall explain any deduction or refusal of a refund upon request.

8.5. A missed session or late cancellation may be treated as a delivered session only if the applicable notice period and charge were clearly disclosed and accepted before booking. The Company shall consider reasonable exceptional circumstances in good faith.

8.6. Institutional fees paid directly by the Customer to a college, university or other institution are governed by that institution's own rules and refund policy and are not refundable by the Company.

8.7. Termination shall not affect rights or obligations that accrued before termination, including the obligation to pay for Services already delivered or the right to a refund for Services not delivered where applicable.

9. Notices

All notices under this Agreement shall be in writing and may be delivered by hand, courier or email to the applicable Party at the contact details below, or to updated details notified in writing.

10. Miscellaneous

10.1. Severability: If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by a competent authority, the remaining provisions shall continue in effect to the extent permitted by law.

10.2. Further Acts and Assurances: Each Party shall reasonably cooperate and execute documents reasonably necessary to give effect to this Agreement, provided that no such document is inconsistent with its terms.

10.3. Nature of Relationship: The Company provides the Services as a service provider. Nothing in this Agreement creates a partnership, joint venture, employment relationship or agency between the Parties. Neither Party may bind the other without express written authority.

10.4. Dispute Resolution: The Parties shall first attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute through direct discussion. If the dispute remains unresolved, either Party may seek remedies before a district mediation centre of Patna. Nothing in this Agreement prevents a Customer from exercising a statutory right.

10.5. Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by the Indian Contract Act, 1872. Proceedings shall be brought before Patna Civil Court or High Court of Patna having jurisdiction under applicable law.

10.6. Entire Agreement: This Agreement, its Schedules and the website terms validly incorporated under Clause 7 constitute the agreement between the Parties concerning the booked Services. Any material amendment must be recorded in writing or in a clear booking confirmation accepted by the Customer. If this Agreement conflicts with a non-waivable legal right, the applicable law shall prevail.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement on the date written above.
